

Meet the New Sherut Leumi Volunteers!

This is Nauffe from Tzofim in Israel, near Kfar Saba. She is so excited to be here- her first time in the U.S. At 19, she is the oldest of six, with two other sisters and three brothers. Her father is a school principal and her mother works in a pension office. She herself is fascinated with architecture, and already can't take her eyes off all the different style of homes here in Cincy. She loves to read- so please help her find some great Israeli books if you can. She also loves to hike the land of Israel. Nauffe loves to cook, too! So, Marilyn Horwitz,(the girls' host family), watch out, you may be in for some culinary treats.

Last year, Nauffe worked in Ofra, for her Sherut Leumi service. She planned educational activities, mostly for religious students, but for secular students, as well.

This is Shiraz, from Moreshet, near Karmiel in the Galilee. She is also super excited to be here! Shiraz is the oldest of six children- five girls and one boy. Her mother is a principal and her father is the manager of the local building authority. Last year she worked in Sherut Leumi tutoring students in a moshav near Petach Tikvah. The other half of the day, she worked as a leader in Bnai Akiva. Her eyes light up when she talks about the beauty of the Galilee, how wonderful the countryside is, the green mountains, the sunsets. Shiraz says she also likes to cook- but don't have her bake – it just never turns out! Her main interests though, are her leadership in Bnai Akiva and traveling the land of Israel.
